Program

Day 1 - Friday 17 October

0945 WELCOME

1000-1120 SHORT TALKS (* = Eligible for Student Prize)
- Source memory for self-referenced materials is equally impaired in Alzheimer’s disease and behavioural variant frontotemporal dementia, Stephanie Wong *
- Autobiographical Memory in Children with Epilepsy, Michael B. Gascoigne*
- How hippocampal lesions and sleep disruption affect longer term memory of an autobiographical experience in epilepsy patients, Monica Ricci*
- Autobiographical memory loss in dementia: Impact on carer burden, Drusilla Teo*

1120-1140 Coffee Break

1140-1225 KEYNOTE: Chris Butler: Accelerated long term forgetting

1225-1400 Lunch

1400-1440 SHORT TALKS
- Temporal direction, constructive process and mental time travel, Aline Cordonnier*
- Did I see that? Can I trust you? Does Metamemory in Older & Younger Adults Moderate False Memories? Katya T. Numbers*

1440-1525 KEYNOTE: Loren Mowszowski: Effects of a Healthy Brain Ageing Cognitive Training program on memory in older adults ‘at risk’ of dementia, and in patients with Parkinson’s disease

1525-1600 Coffee Break

1600-1700 SHORT TALKS
- Interpersonal and Material Memory Compensation Strategies: Interaction and Coordination, Celia B. Harris
- Learning and recall of sung information: A comparison of musicians and non-musicians with and without Alzheimer's Dementia, Amee Baird
- Beyond the taxi driver: Can spatial navigation in video games improve hippocampal functioning in memory impaired patients? Cara Wong*

1830 Drinks and DINNER at 7

Day 2 – Saturday 18 October

0915-1000 SHORT TALKS
- Do I know you? Examining memory for faces in frontotemporal dementia, Fiona Kumfor*
- Neural correlates of emotion and social cognition: Evidence from frontotemporal dementia, Rosi Hutchings

1000-1015 Coffee Break

1015-1100 KEYNOTE: Romina Palermo: The specificity of face memory: Evidence from individual differences and congenital prosopagnosia

11:00 Presentation of Student Prize